Jazzworks returns to Opera House

HUDSON—The Hudson Opera House hosts the Hudson Jazzworks concert Sunday, August 10 at 3:30 p.m., featuring pianist and composer Armen Donelian, tenor saxophonist Marc Mommaas and special guest Reggie Workman, a jazz double bassist. A pre-concert talk is at 3 p.m.

The musicians are joined by the participants of the eighth annual Hudson Jazz Workshop.

Founded by Donelian and Mommaas in 2007, Hudson Jazzworks hosts an intensive jazz improvisation and composition workshop every August for four days in rural Columbia County, in collaboration with the Manhattan School of Music, Conservatory of Amsterdam, and Rhythmic Conservatory of Copenhagen.

The Opera House is at 327 Warren Street. Concert tickets are $10, free to students and children 18 and under; the pre-concert talk is free and open to the public.

Purchase tickets at 518 822-1438 or hudsonoperahouse.org.

August 10, Workman gives an open master class at the Hudson Jazz Works Studio, 338 Kipp Road.

The class is free to students, $10 adults. Reservations are required. Call 518 822-1640 or info@hudsonjazzworks.org.
